

At the 'Ville.

Women's Clubs Unite.

The Lyndon Civic Federation held a well attended meeting Saturday, in which the necessary steps were taken toward perfecting the union of the three women's clubs. The proposed constitution and by-laws, which were printed in the local paper last week, were adopted with a few amendments. The name of the club was decided on as the Lyndon Union Club. The officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. B. F. Browne; vice president, Mrs. H. W. Lyster; 2d vice president, Mrs. Charles Lee; recording secretary, Mrs. E. A. Shorey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John B. Chase; treasurer, Miss Ida Pearl. The president appoints a committee of two to take charge of the arrangement of study classes, also chairmen of standing committees, each of whom appoints their own committee.

The graded school observed Arbor Day Friday by appropriate songs and exercises in the different rooms. Several young trees were set out on the school grounds.

An interesting teachers' convention was held in the graded school building last week Tuesday by Supervisor Martin E. Daniels. An invitation was extended to all the teachers of his district and 46 out of 48 were present. The morning program was held in Prof. Jamieson's room and the principal address was given by J. S. Cooley of Worcester, Mass., on "The Phonetic Method of Reading." An interesting discussion followed. Mr. Daniels then spoke briefly on "The Value of a Definite Program for the Primary Grades." In the afternoon the visitors spent their time in the different rooms where special subjects of interest were taken up for their benefit.

A large and well attended meeting of the Pythian Sisters was held with the lodge here Friday evening, there being representatives present from Danville, Woodsville, Barton Landing and St. Johnsbury, with the state grand officers and the grand chief of New Hampshire. A fine banquet was served after the meeting.

Squire J. Wilson is very low, suffering from a complete breakdown of the system. At his advanced age, 77, serious consequences are feared.

A reception to the new Methodist pastor, Rev. F. E. White, and his wife, was held in the church Friday evening.

The senior play, "Down in Maine," will be repeated in Music Hall Saturday evening, May 30, taking the place of the usual musical concert. They will also give the play at Sheffield on Friday evening of this week.

Chauncey Adams, secretary of the St. Johnsbury Y. M. C. A., spoke at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Chase have gone back to their home at Lyndon for the summer. J. C. Eaton has hired Mrs. Wilcox's tenement, which they vacated, for the summer, as his daughter, Mrs. Carrie (Eaton) Brewer and two children are expected here about the first of June.

Prof. E. V. Perkins has secured a fine position as principal of the High school at Enosburg Falls. They have a new school building to be opened in the fall and the place promises well. All are glad for his sake, though sorry to have the family leave town.

Mrs. Asa McKenny of Boston is stopping with her mother and sister, Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Parker, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Vail leave the last of this week for a trip through the West, to be absent about a month.

The Dunton house on Main street was sold at auction Saturday, and was bought by Ernest Carr, who lives on the same street.

Dr. Dwinell and Dr. Smith are the owners of new Reo automobiles, which have just arrived.

The well known rural comedy, Quincy Adams Sawyer, will be given in Music Hall, Saturday evening.

George Pierce was married last week Tuesday to Miss Daisy McMullen of Fitchburg, Mass., a former resident of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are now on their wedding trip, but will soon return to their home here.

Little Robert Pierce has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is now much better.

LYNDON.

Mrs. Samuel Stoddard of Barnet visited her sister, Mrs. L. K. Sweet, Friday.

Mrs. George H. Stuart of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Ellen A. Staples Thursday and Friday. She was accompanied by her two grandchildren, Correll and Julia Stuart, who remained until Monday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Wells Quimby.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a food sale at their vestry Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. The official board of the Methodist church will hold an important business meeting at the vestry Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Epworth League will hold their annual business meeting for the election of officers next Tuesday evening at 7.30.

The Salvation Army gave a stereopticon lecture in the Methodist church last Monday evening.

Lyndon academy and graded schools observed Arbor Day by interesting and appropriate exercises and by planting quite a number of trees. They also made flower beds in the school yard.

Fishing Tackle

That's Fit for Fishing.

Randall & Whitcomb

Samson and Riverside Steel Rods $1.75.

The Village Improvement society advertised a lecture for last Friday evening which was well attended and very much enjoyed. A. S. Haskins of St. Johnsbury gave an illustrated talk on the eye and brain, using a stereopticon, and Rev. W. C. Clark followed with an illustrated lecture on London.

WEST BURKE.

William Hill, who has worked for Ernest Warren in the shop the past year, was married Saturday to Miss Mattie Spencer at the home of her father, Hiram Spencer, about two miles north of the village. Good wishes are extended to them.

William W. Coe was in Boston last week for goods and an auto. He came home Sunday.

Mr. Heath came home Saturday and was nearly sick, so that he will be at home for a few days at least.

Fred Frasier is in very poor health. He started on the road last week, but had to leave and come home.

S. D. Bugbee went to Newport a week ago and succeeded in purchasing a horse that was not afraid of autos.

Miss Maile Sleeper is still in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sanborn from Danville stopped in West Burke Friday night on their way to Morgan, where he is appointed to preach this year.

Mrs. Emma Ford fell off the side of the chamber stairway Friday, hurting her quite badly.

George Dean has purchased three acres of the Beckwith meadow adjoining his own and is fencing it off. There are some 10 acres more, that the Beckwith heirs own and the best land about the village.

A family by the name of Chase moved in last week over the tin shop.

Mr. Berabee has sold his place here and moved to Burke Hollow.

BARNET.

Rev. C. H. Merrill preached here and at East Barnet, Sunday. It is expected that Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks of St. Johnsbury will preach here and at East Barnet next Sunday.

Miss Bertha J. Stevens of St. Johnsbury was in town Saturday.

Bert Kimball has moved his family into the Hotel tenement.

Miss Lue Berry has gone to Lisbon.

A number of people set out trees on Arbor day. Several new ones were placed in Stevens Park.

Arthur Peck of Hanover spent Sunday at T. P. Robie's with his family.

The W. C. T. U. County Convention will be held in Barnet next week Thursday and Friday.

Electric lights are again in order and are on the streets and in the houses.

An alarm of fire last Wednesday called out the people to put out a fire at the phosphate house near the railroad and stock yard.

Don't own "a cripple" when you can remove the "blemishes" with Morrison's English Liniment.

NORTH DANVILLE.

The Daughters of Liberty will hold an old-fashioned masquerade promenade and dance in their hall on Thursday evening, May 21. Refreshments will be served and everyone is invited to come masked.

At Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Remick of New Hampshire have rented W. C. Heath's house for the summer.

Diamond Chapter O. E. S., will hold a meeting for practice Friday evening at Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Asa Wesson is visiting relatives in Boston.

Mrs. W. H. Nutting started for California, Wednesday, and will visit relatives in Seattle and other places en route.

Robert Vance and Bert Hartshorn have gone to North Danville to work on the road for Mr. Gadapee.

A large number of the Pythian Sisters visited the Lyndonville lodge Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a social and hash supper Wednesday afternoon and evening, May 20.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a parlor meeting at the Methodist church Friday evening. An interesting program will be given and the public are cordially invited to attend.

The mid-week service Thursday evening will be a union one and it will be held at the Methodist church.

Miss Hattie Choate is spending the week with Mrs. Elsie Merrill at Peacham.

Daniel Wakefield, Jr., was in town over Sunday on account of the illness of his father.

James Dean of San Francisco visited at H. S. Dole's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridges of Wolcott are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Cuss.

Miss Mary Martin of Hardwick visited friends in town the first of week.

Nelson A. Dole has been refinishing the interior of his home and has had an oak floor laid in the sitting room.

Mrs. Perkins of Athol, N. H., is caring for Mr. Wakefield, who is quite ill again.

Mrs. Story and children of Bennington are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn Bolton.

David Corbett of Peacham has exchanged his farm for Dr. David R. Brown's house in this village and will move at once.

WEST DANVILLE.

Edna Armstrong and Lucette Farrington were at home Sunday from school in Montpelier.

C. C. Farrington is offering the Elliot real estate for sale consisting of cottage, ice house, barn and some 20 acres of land which contains many fine cottage lots.

Nelson Hunt is slowly failing.

Charles Hunt of St. Johnsbury was with his parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie Lane of St. Johnsbury was at Nelson Hunt's Sunday.

R. S. Whittier has the job to paint Hollis Way's buildings and the church.

William Maynes has moved into Mrs. Choate's upstairs tenement.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER.

Mrs. George Eastman and Marion Shaw of Lyndonville called on friends here last week.

Miss Helen L. Graves, who has been visiting for several weeks at Brown-ton, with friends, returned home last week.

Mrs. Laura Franklin went to Hardwick last week on business.

Miss Barney of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Miss Blanche Rexford, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Park went to Wheelock, Saturday, to attend the funeral of her uncle.

Charlie Brockway was called to South Framingham, Mass., Saturday, on account of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Greenlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hinman are moving to Paddock Village, St. Johnsbury.

Wallace Harriman of Somerville, Mass., spent Thursday with his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Harriman.

Mrs. A. A. Blunt of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Mrs. Byron Wright the last of the week.

Emerson Campbell and Archie Colbath go to Rochester, N. H., Thursday, on business. Mr. Colbath will return Friday, but Mr. Campbell will stay awhile with Mr. Smith's people who are moving there from St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cole of East Lyndon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Piper last week Tuesday.

Mildred Cade of St. Johnsbury spent Saturday with Miss Bertha Salmon.

Charlie Bradley, who has been working at Danville, has returned to George Morrill's.

About 30 from Green Mountain Grange attended the Grange meeting at Concord, Friday night. The degree team of this place conferred the third and fourth degree on candidates. Although the traveling was not the best, they all reported a fine time.

On Saturday night at Green Mountain Grange the third and fourth degree will be conferred on candidates and it is expected that the Grange of Danville will be present.

Pomona Grange will meet at Wide Awake Hall, Wednesday evening, May 20.

Rev. Mr. Lewis conducted the services at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The thank offering meeting will be held at the Congregational church Sunday evening. All are requested to hand in their offerings before the meeting if possible.

Rev. Mr. Kilbourne gave his congregation a very interesting sermon Sunday morning.

Miss Gladys Hallow entertained the Sunday school class at her home very pleasantly Wednesday evening, there being 16 present. Light refreshments were served. This week the class meets with Miss Nina Campbell.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Mrs. Helen Cassidy is critically ill from a shock sustained last week. Mrs. Emma Taisey is caring for her.

The Baranca class met Thursday evening in the Reformed Presbyterian church vestry, closing with a social hour. Ice cream and cake were served.

Harry R. Hall of St. Albans spent last week in town, the guest of his brother, Bert E. Hall.

Mrs. Alex T. Beaton entertained the members of the Wednesday Club last week.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

No Alum, No Lime Phosphate

Settling the Insurance.

A. L. Pragg and Joseph Brunelle adjusted the insurance incident to the Union block fire last week and the owners of the block will receive $3779.91. Mr. Brunelle has been engaged to repair the block and has already begun to clear away the debris. The block will have a flat roof and in the third story there will be two tenements instead of a hall.

The adjusters allowed $1378 on Grace Methodist church, and while the church is being repaired the congregation will worship in Music Hall. Besides putting the building back where it was before the fire the building will have a slate roof.

At Summerville.

Ten of the schoolmates of John Brodrien were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon at his birthday party. All enjoyed the occasion, especially the young host who received many presents including a bicycle from his parents and grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Weeks and Miss Rossie B. Weeks were in Haverhill, Monday, to attend the funeral of a relative.

John N. Gale is in Boston this week attending a N. E. O. P. meeting.

W. A. Astle was called to Jefferson last week by the critical illness of his father, S. D. Astle of Monroe. Mr. and Mrs. Astle, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mitchell and Mrs. F. E. Spaulding go today to Monroe to attend the funeral.

At Fairbanks Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carr entertained the small boys of the village, Friday evening. Games were played, after which light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson and son Raymond have gone to Wheelock to visit Mrs. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall.

James Robinson is making extensive repairs on his house on the Fairground road.

Charles Koepka's new house has been recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gorham.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Birch have been spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Birch of Lyndonville. They are now visiting her brother, Mr. Bowman, at Lyndonville.

EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

Mrs. George Dodge is visiting her brothers at Hardwick.

Mrs. Jane Barker has been entertaining her grandsons, Percy and Earl Morrill of St. Johnsbury.

Peter Brown of St. Johnsbury is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown. Mrs. Brown received a visit from her sister, Mrs. Susan Hoy of St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. Lois Moulton has returned to Concord Corner after spending a few days at her home here.

May Stiles has gone to Pike Station, N. H., where she is employed as a stenographer.

I. G. Smith is failing. Mrs. Smith is now on the sick list.

W. S. Willard has moved to the place vacated by J. H. Clark.

Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes of the South Church, St. Johnsbury, will preach here Sunday morning.

Frank Foster has gone to Mrs. Lyon's to board.

Henry Babcock has gone back to his work as clerk in W. S. Willard's store, having recovered from his illness.

Amasa Simpson has sold the ten acres of land back of the John McGinness place to Bundy & Weeks who now want a purchaser for it.

If You Cannot Bear to Write because it strains your eyes, you need glasses at once. Don't delay coming to us and having

YOUR EYES EXAMINED.

Poor sight never gets better of itself. It gets worse every day you neglect to attend to it. So we advise you to come and be tested for the glasses that will aid you. They can only be determined after a skilled examination of your eyes, such as we are especially qualified to give.

A. S. HASKINS, Optometrist and Optician.

80 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Private Fish Preserve.

The boundaries of my Preserve at West Waterford, filed in the office of the Town Clerk of Waterford, Vt., include all waters of ponds or streams, beginning with the brooks on the north at the line of the Hovey farm, adjoining the estate of the late A. B. Carpenter, and running to the line of the Chandler farm on the south-east, adjoining the farm formerly owned by Frank W. Hastings.

The Statutes and Acts of the State of Vermont protecting these waters have all been fully complied with.

E. B. Parker.

West Waterford, Vt., April 25, 1908.

Boiled and Live LOBSTERS AT SPAULDING MARKET

Thursday and Friday.

Also fresh fish every week. Silver Salmon, Buck Shad, Bluefish.

Mackerel, Halibut, Haddock, White fish, Cusk and Codfish.

THE HOWARD is America's watch classic.

It was the first watch made in America—brought out in 1842. It proved itself the finest practical pocket watch.

It is today the only truly fine American watch.

The new HOWARD extra-high is the first thin-model American watch guaranteed to keep time—the HOWARD kind of time.

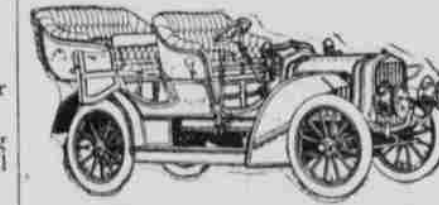

The HOWARD is the only watch sold at an absolutely fixed price—from $15.00 to $150.00—printed price ticket attached at the factory.

"When you buy a HOWARD you get something."

We are distributors for this distinctive watch.

JOHN D. BLACKSHAW, First Class Watch and Jewelry Repair Department.

27 EASTERN AVENUE.

Pope Toledo

TYPE XII. List price $3,000. Quick Sale $2,100.

Call or let us write about it to you. A large list second-hand cars at all prices. Bicycles, Gasoline, Repairs, Supplies, Phonographs, Fishing Tackle, Ammunition, and other articles too numerous to mention.

INTER-STATE CO. Both Phones, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

SEE

what $15, $18 or $20 will do for a Spring Suit at

J. C. STEVENS', Merchant Tailor.

In Good Season.

Of the three policies that were on the fire loss in Union Block last Monday, all were adjusted and paid in full for losses sustained inside of a week. My companies have a reputation of paying losses promptly. Would be glad to serve you if in want of any kind of insurance protection.

CHAS. S. HASTINGS, OVER POST OFFICE.

Land at Joe's Pond FOR SALE

Twenty-five acres of land on shores of Joe's lake in West Danville, Vt., together with cottage and barn. Nearly one-half mile of water frontage and a large number of fine cottage lots. Also large quantity of standing timber, telephone poles and fence poles. This is a good property for investment. Address

C. C. FARRINGTON, West Danville, Vt.

Comfort and Convenience Linked

UNION UNDERSUITS

Made in whole and Half lengths $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $5.00.

Steele, Taplin & Co., ON THE HILL.

Automobile Coats, Caps and Gloves. New line Trunks, Cases, Grips.

CORSET WEEK

Sale Commencing Thursday, May 14th.

We shall try to make it for your interest to visit our Corset Department. We have decided to offer our entire stock of 50c Eastern Queen Corsets, in three shapes at 39 cents a pair.

These corsets are too well known to need any description here.

We shall at this time introduce to the ladies of this section our new L. C. C. (Leach's Comfort Corset) a Bias Gored good quality Batiste Corset with two pairs of Hose Supporters attached, a most shapely model, comparing well in quality with the higher priced ones.

50 cents a pair.

We are showing a complete line of the celebrated Loomers Corsets, D. H. & C., Spira bone and La Resistia Corsets at $1.00, 1.50, 2.50 pair.

We invite a comparison of our new D. H. & C. Form Adjusting Corsets with any $3.00 Form Adjusting or Abdominal Reducing Corset on the market today. It wins out on its merit and the price is

$2.50 cents a pair.

No matter what your figure is there is a corset to fit it. Better get acquainted with what our Corset Department has to offer you this week.

Lawrence P. Leach & Co., 75 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

FIRE

Insurance written in old and solid companies.

AACHEN & MUNICH of Germany. PROVIDENCE-WASHINGTON INS. CO.

FIDELITY FIRE.

COMMONWEALTH.

HOLYOKE MUTUAL.

You can't afford to take the risk. Better come in and place your risk with us.

CADY & BRALEY.

Morgan Stallion, Prince Charlie. Standard Registered No. 5007.

This is one of the best and closest bred Morgan Stallions in Vermont today. A son of Young Gen. Gifford, a superb individual, a perfect horse, a proven sire of first-class colts. There are no better in the Morgan class. He has quality. The following was clipped from